

GRANITE CANYON & OPEN CANYON CAMPING ZONES

LOWER GRANITE CANYON ZONE

- The camping zone begins approximately 0.25 mile above the lower patrol cabin (patrol cabins are not staffed). The upper boundary is just below the upper patrol cabin.
- The Lower Granite Group Campsite is south of the trail, approximately 3.4 miles west of the Lower Granite patrol cabin.

NORTH FORK ZONE

The lower zone boundary is located approximately 0.25 mile above the upper patrol cabin. The upper boundary is located where the trail crosses the North Fork Creek.

SOUTH-MIDDLE FORKS ZONE

- The lower boundary of the zone is approximately 0.75 mile above the upper Granite patrol cabin on the South Fork Trail. On the north, the zone boundary is defined by the ridge between the North and Middle Forks. The east boundary is located approximately 1.5 miles from the top of the tram.
- Middle Fork Group Campsite: This site is located approximately 4.6 miles from the top of the tram and is about 1.4 miles south of Marion Lake. This site is in trees approximately 150 yards east of the point where the trail crosses the Middle Fork Creek.

MT. HUNT DIVIDE ZONE

The upper zone boundary is located just south (below) of Mt. Hunt Divide. The zone extends down to a point approximately 0.75 mile above the Granite Canyon trail.

OPEN CANYON

The zone extends from where the trail crosses Open Canyon Creek, to just north of Mt. Hunt Divide.

MARION LAKE

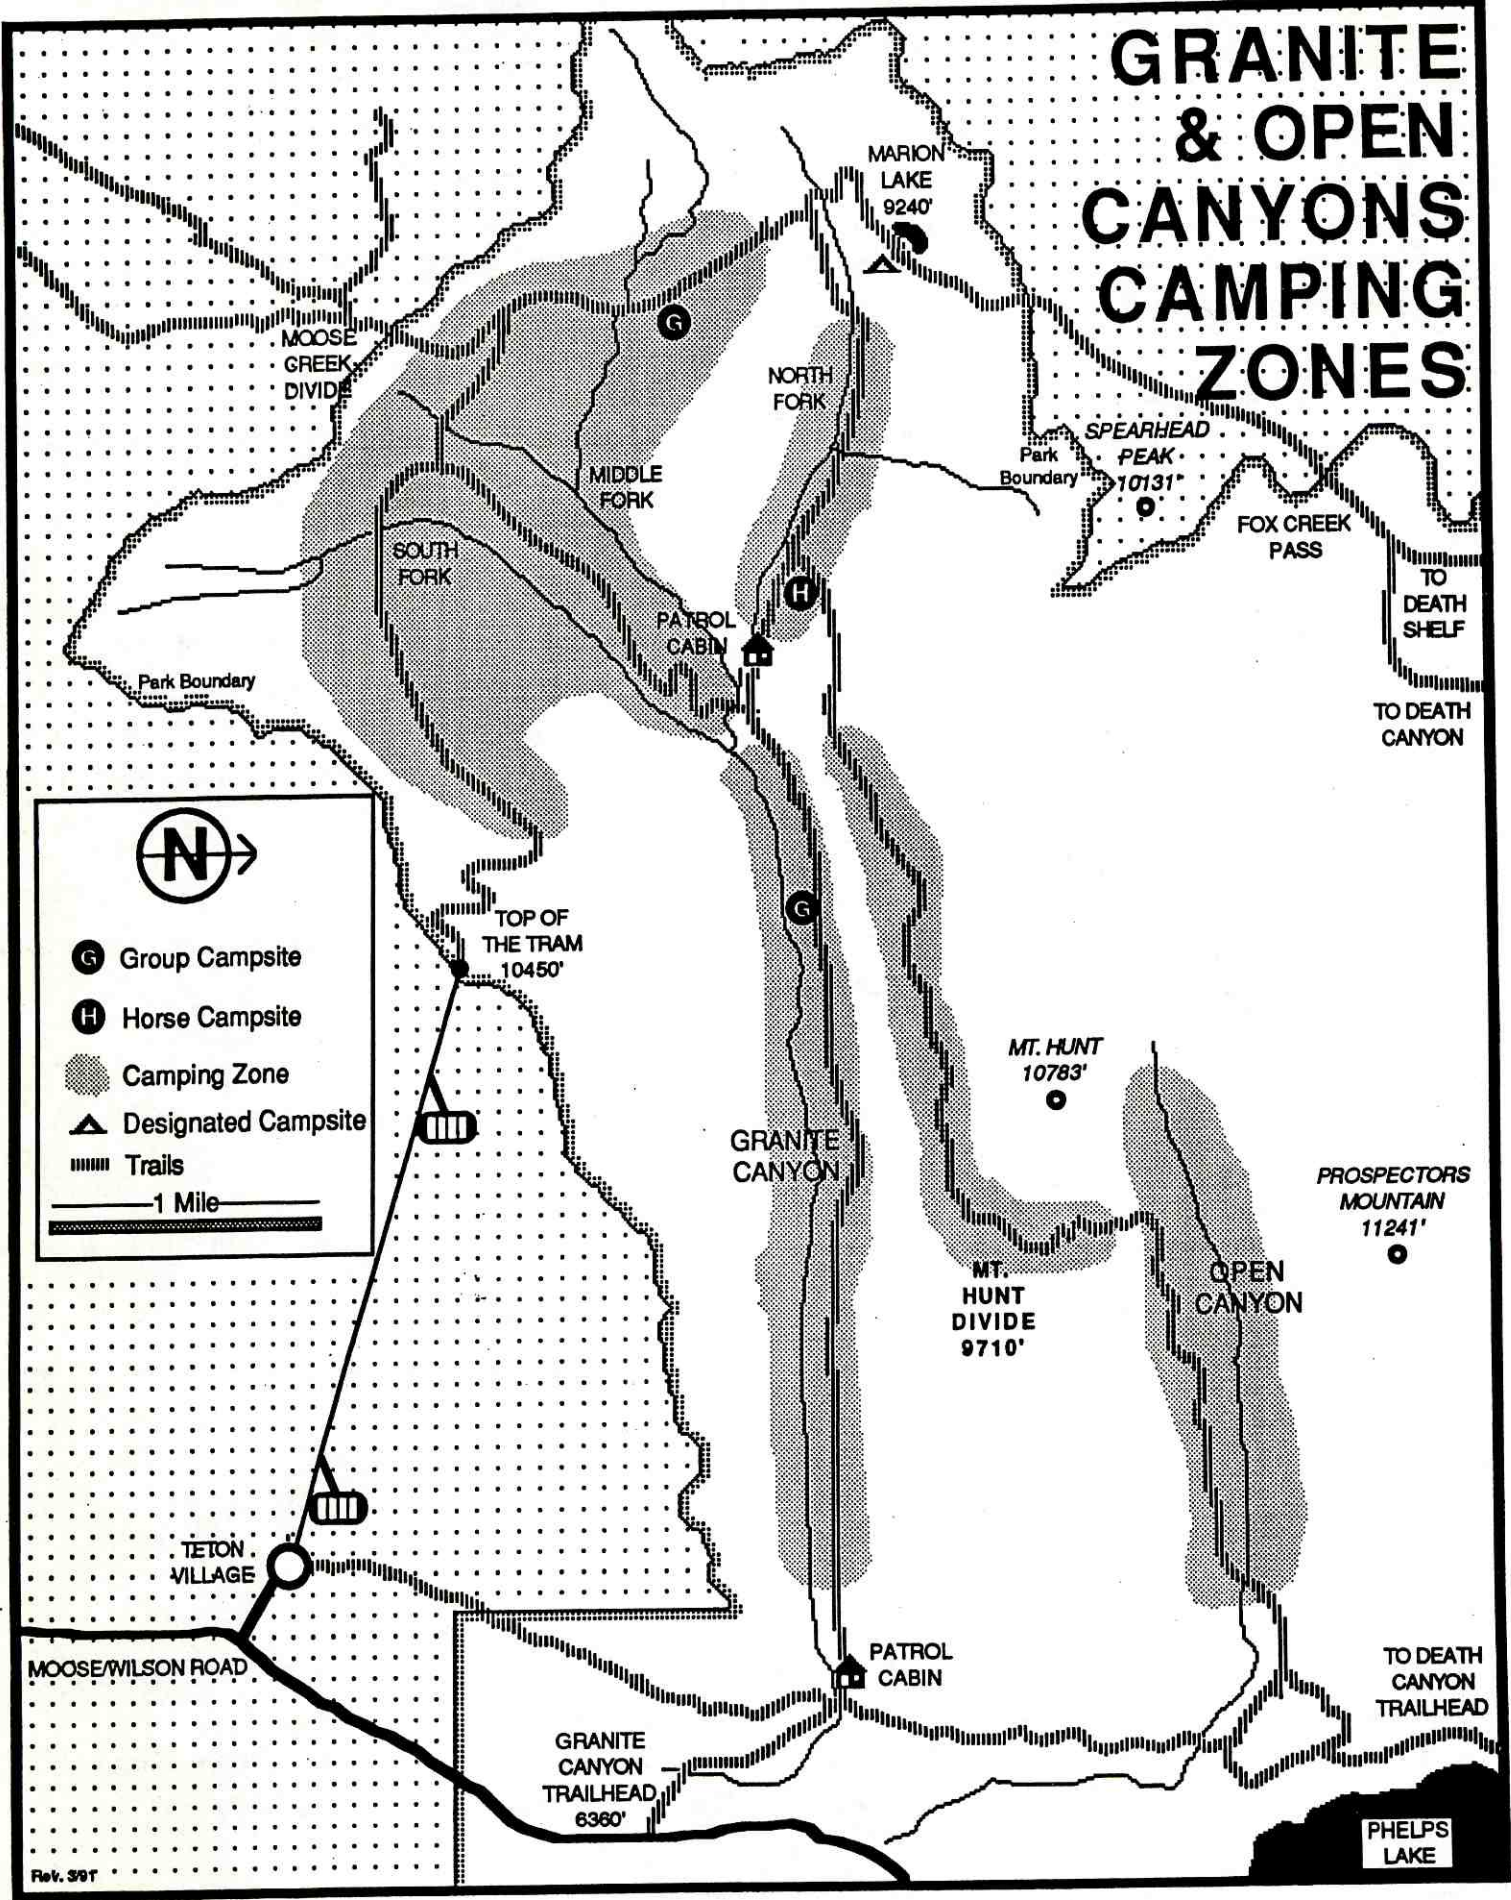

Three designated campsites are located just east of the lake. A spur trail leads east from the lake to the sites. Please camp on tent pads.

PLEASE NOTE

- Fires are NOT allowed in any of the areas.
- Signs mark the beginning and end of each zone.
- Camp on previously impacted campsites.
- Bears are very common in these areas. You MUST properly hang your food. Use the counter-balance method; food storage poles are not generally provided.
- Group Campsites may only be used by parties specifically assigned to the sites. These sites are assigned to groups of 7-12 people. Group sites are marked with a sign.

GRANITE & OPEN CANYONS CAMPING ZONES

Legend:

- North
- G Group Campsite
- H Horse Campsite
- Camping Zone
- Designated Campsite
- Trails
- 1 Mile